Basketball Official Uniform

The proper uniform for basketball officials in Kansas is a short-sleeved, one inch black and white striped "V" neck knit shirt with black cuffs. An undershirt if worn should not be visible. The shirt should be worn inside the pants and the crew shall wear the same design and style. Black slacks, black socks, primarily black shoes with black laces, and if worn a black belt. A black jacket may be worn prior to the game. The black jacket must be without stripes on cuffs and collar and no logos other than KSHSAA or recognized Local Official Association logos.

WHERE TO GET UNIFORMS

The KSHSAA has signed agreements with these companies to provide uniforms with the KSHSAA patch already on them. You may check their websites for more information.

Smitty's – www.smittyofficialsapparel.com

Honig's – www.honigs.com

Basketball short sleeve – (standard black/white vertically striped) patch located 2" above the ribknit

New officials are mailed a KSHSAA patch which can be affixed to a proper uniform in the correct location. Local sporting goods stores may have the proper officials shirt.
